FLOWER POWER

Marglou Sobel (top) & Stephanie Nadel
Marglou Sobel Interior Design, Woollahra,
NSW; (02) 9060 5881 or marglousofel.com.au.

"Our clients wanted their terrace to be vibrant and colourful, referencing some of their favourite places in Spain," says Marylou, who collaborated with Stephanie on this Sydney outdoor area. Working with the home's existing Mediterranean architecture, the terrace was built around the perfect shade of pink. "It took 20 or so samples to get there, but we eventually hit upon a custom colour that looks beautiful in any light and creates a warm, inviting feeling," says Marylou. The colour picks up on salmon tones in the Moroccan encaustic cement tiles from Jatonas Interiors. A Wolf barbecue and custom-made pizza oven ensure the space is as good for cooking as it is good looking.

ROOM NOTES Custom-mixed paint, Resene. Indian Dusk encaustic cement tiles, Jatonas Interiors. Neolith 'Tron Corten' porcelain benchtop, CDK Stone. Wolf gas barbecue and Qasari rangehood, Wisting Appliances. Sierra teak dining chairs, Cosh Living. Decor copper wall light, LightCo.

GARDEN PARTY

Charlotte Cooté
Cooté & Co, Prahran, Victoria;
(03) 9325 0378 or cooteandco.com.au

Bringing the outdoors in was key to the transforming what was a ho-hum conservatory into this wonderfully flamboyant room in coastal Victoria. The indoor-outdoor connection is undeniable: lush green walls and fabulous floral fabrics. "We wanted to create an inviting room for entertaining, one that created a feeling of sitting in the garden," says Charlotte. The canopy ceiling evokes a marquee and washes the room with soft light. "We haven't seen anything else remotely like it," says the owner. "The colour is uplifting, making it a wonderful spot to spend time." ►

ROOM NOTES Dining chairs, Graham Geddes Antiques. Walls painted a custom colour from Porter's Paints. Custom floor lamps and wall sconces, Cooté & Co. Vintage chandelier, French Anduze planter, Julian Ranchi. Sofa covered in Christopher Farr Cloth's 'Roses' from Ascraft. Tablecloth in Fraga Silver, curtains in Penang Green Spring, and canopy in Carol-Anne Green fabrics, all from Redelman Fabrics.

Styling by Kate Nixon (77) & Tess Newman-Morris (18). Photography by Daniel Nadel (77) & Lisa Cohen (18).
