INTRODUCING OUR ONLINE SERVICE

AT HOME

Coote&Co at Home is our new online service bringing Charlotte's design expertise to you in an affordable, no obligation two-hour package. She will provide focus and design direction for your project. By answering your specific questions and providing you with tools and actionable tips, Charlotte will provide you with confidence to move forward with your project.

We have recently run several projects remotely, with great success, and have heard your feedback. As such we are thrilled to bring our online design service to you, Coote&Co at Home.

To all our friends and clients staying at home, to those who live rurally or interstate, we hope this exciting new service offering will inspire you to create beautiful spaces.

For $545 (inc. gst) you will receive a one-on-one video consultation with Charlotte. This time will provide answers and information to arm you with the confidence to fulfil your project.

IN THE DETAIL

01.

Prior to the consultation Coote&Co will send you a briefing questionnaire. We use this information to gain insight into the questions and design problems you are facing. We ask for clear information and any supporting images or plans.

02.

We allow 20 minutes to review your briefing answers, documents and images. This information gives us a good understanding of your project and will focus and structure the consultation.

03.

Your two-hour video consultation will take place via Zoom. Charlotte will provide inspiration, information and an actionable plan for you to take control of your project.

04.

You are now inspired and confident, with ideas and resources to transform your home.

You are now inspired, confident and ready to create beauty within your home.
